TO OUR ADVERTISERS

The members of the Plymouth County Agricultural Society, desire to express their thanks and appreciation to the business men who have for so many years advertised in the Fair Book. It is our advertisers that make the issuing of the Fair Book possible, and the Directors desire to remind the members that they should patronize those who have aided us for so many years.

EXTRACTS FROM BY-LAWS

All entries of articles for exhibition at the hall must be made by letter or verbally to the Clerk of exhibition before six o'clock P.M., September 4.

All entries of live stock for exhibition must be made by letter or verbally to the Entry Clerk on or before Wednesday, August 31.

All persons exhibiting articles are required to have them numbered or marked with the owner's name. All articles are at the risk of the owner.

The several committees shall meet at the Secretary's office on the morning of the first day of the exhibition at ten o'clock.

Premiums awarded by the Society not called for before December 1, after such award, shall remain in the treasury for the benefit of the Society.

Exhibitors will be allowed to remove articles from the hall after five o'clock P. M., on the last day of the exhibition by notifying the proper person in attendance.

If the Fair is not a financial success, the exhibitors take a pro rata cut in prize money.

Premiums of $1.00 or more awarded by the Society will be in check form by mail. Those of less than $1.00 will be payable after three o'clock of the last day of the fair at the Secretary's office.

An expert judge has been secured to award the premiums on cattle, poultry, swine, sheep and horses; also another expert to judge fruit and vegetables.

The committees in other departments have been selected with care and with a view of competency.

All Poultry, including Ducks, Geese and Turkeys must be entered singly or in pens. Pens to consist of one male and four females.

CATTLE

The entries in this department will far exceed the number of previous years and will be well worth seeing.

POULTRY

The exhibition of poultry always plays an important part at an Agricultural Fair and our Fair is well known for its fine exhibit of birds of all breeds

WATER FOWL

The water fowl will be displayed in the artificial pool and will be furnished by the Slate Rock Farm of Bridgewater.

MUSIC

The State Champion Junior Band of Bridgewater will furnish music. All lovers of fine music should hear this band. To see and listen to this band of more than 60 boys and girls is worth more than the price of admission.

THE GOAT SHOW

The South Easton Milk Goat Breeders Association will exhibit a large number of goats of various breeds. This exhibit is creating a great deal of interest and will be worth seeing. For further information address: Mrs. G. L. Connelly, Howard Street, South Easton, Mass.
